

Write an ALP that counts the number of sentences in a file 'samp.txt' and displays it on the screen. A sentence can only end with one of the following characters '.', '!', '?'. The size of the file is variable. You can assume that the number of sentences in the file will not exceed 9 and that the file is already available in the BIN folder.