Write ALP that will display the pattern shown in Figure above in the middle of the screen. The pattern should not blink. You will have to use text mode for this display. The pattern is a red cross (11 x11). The rest of the screen remains black. '?' should be used as blocking function.